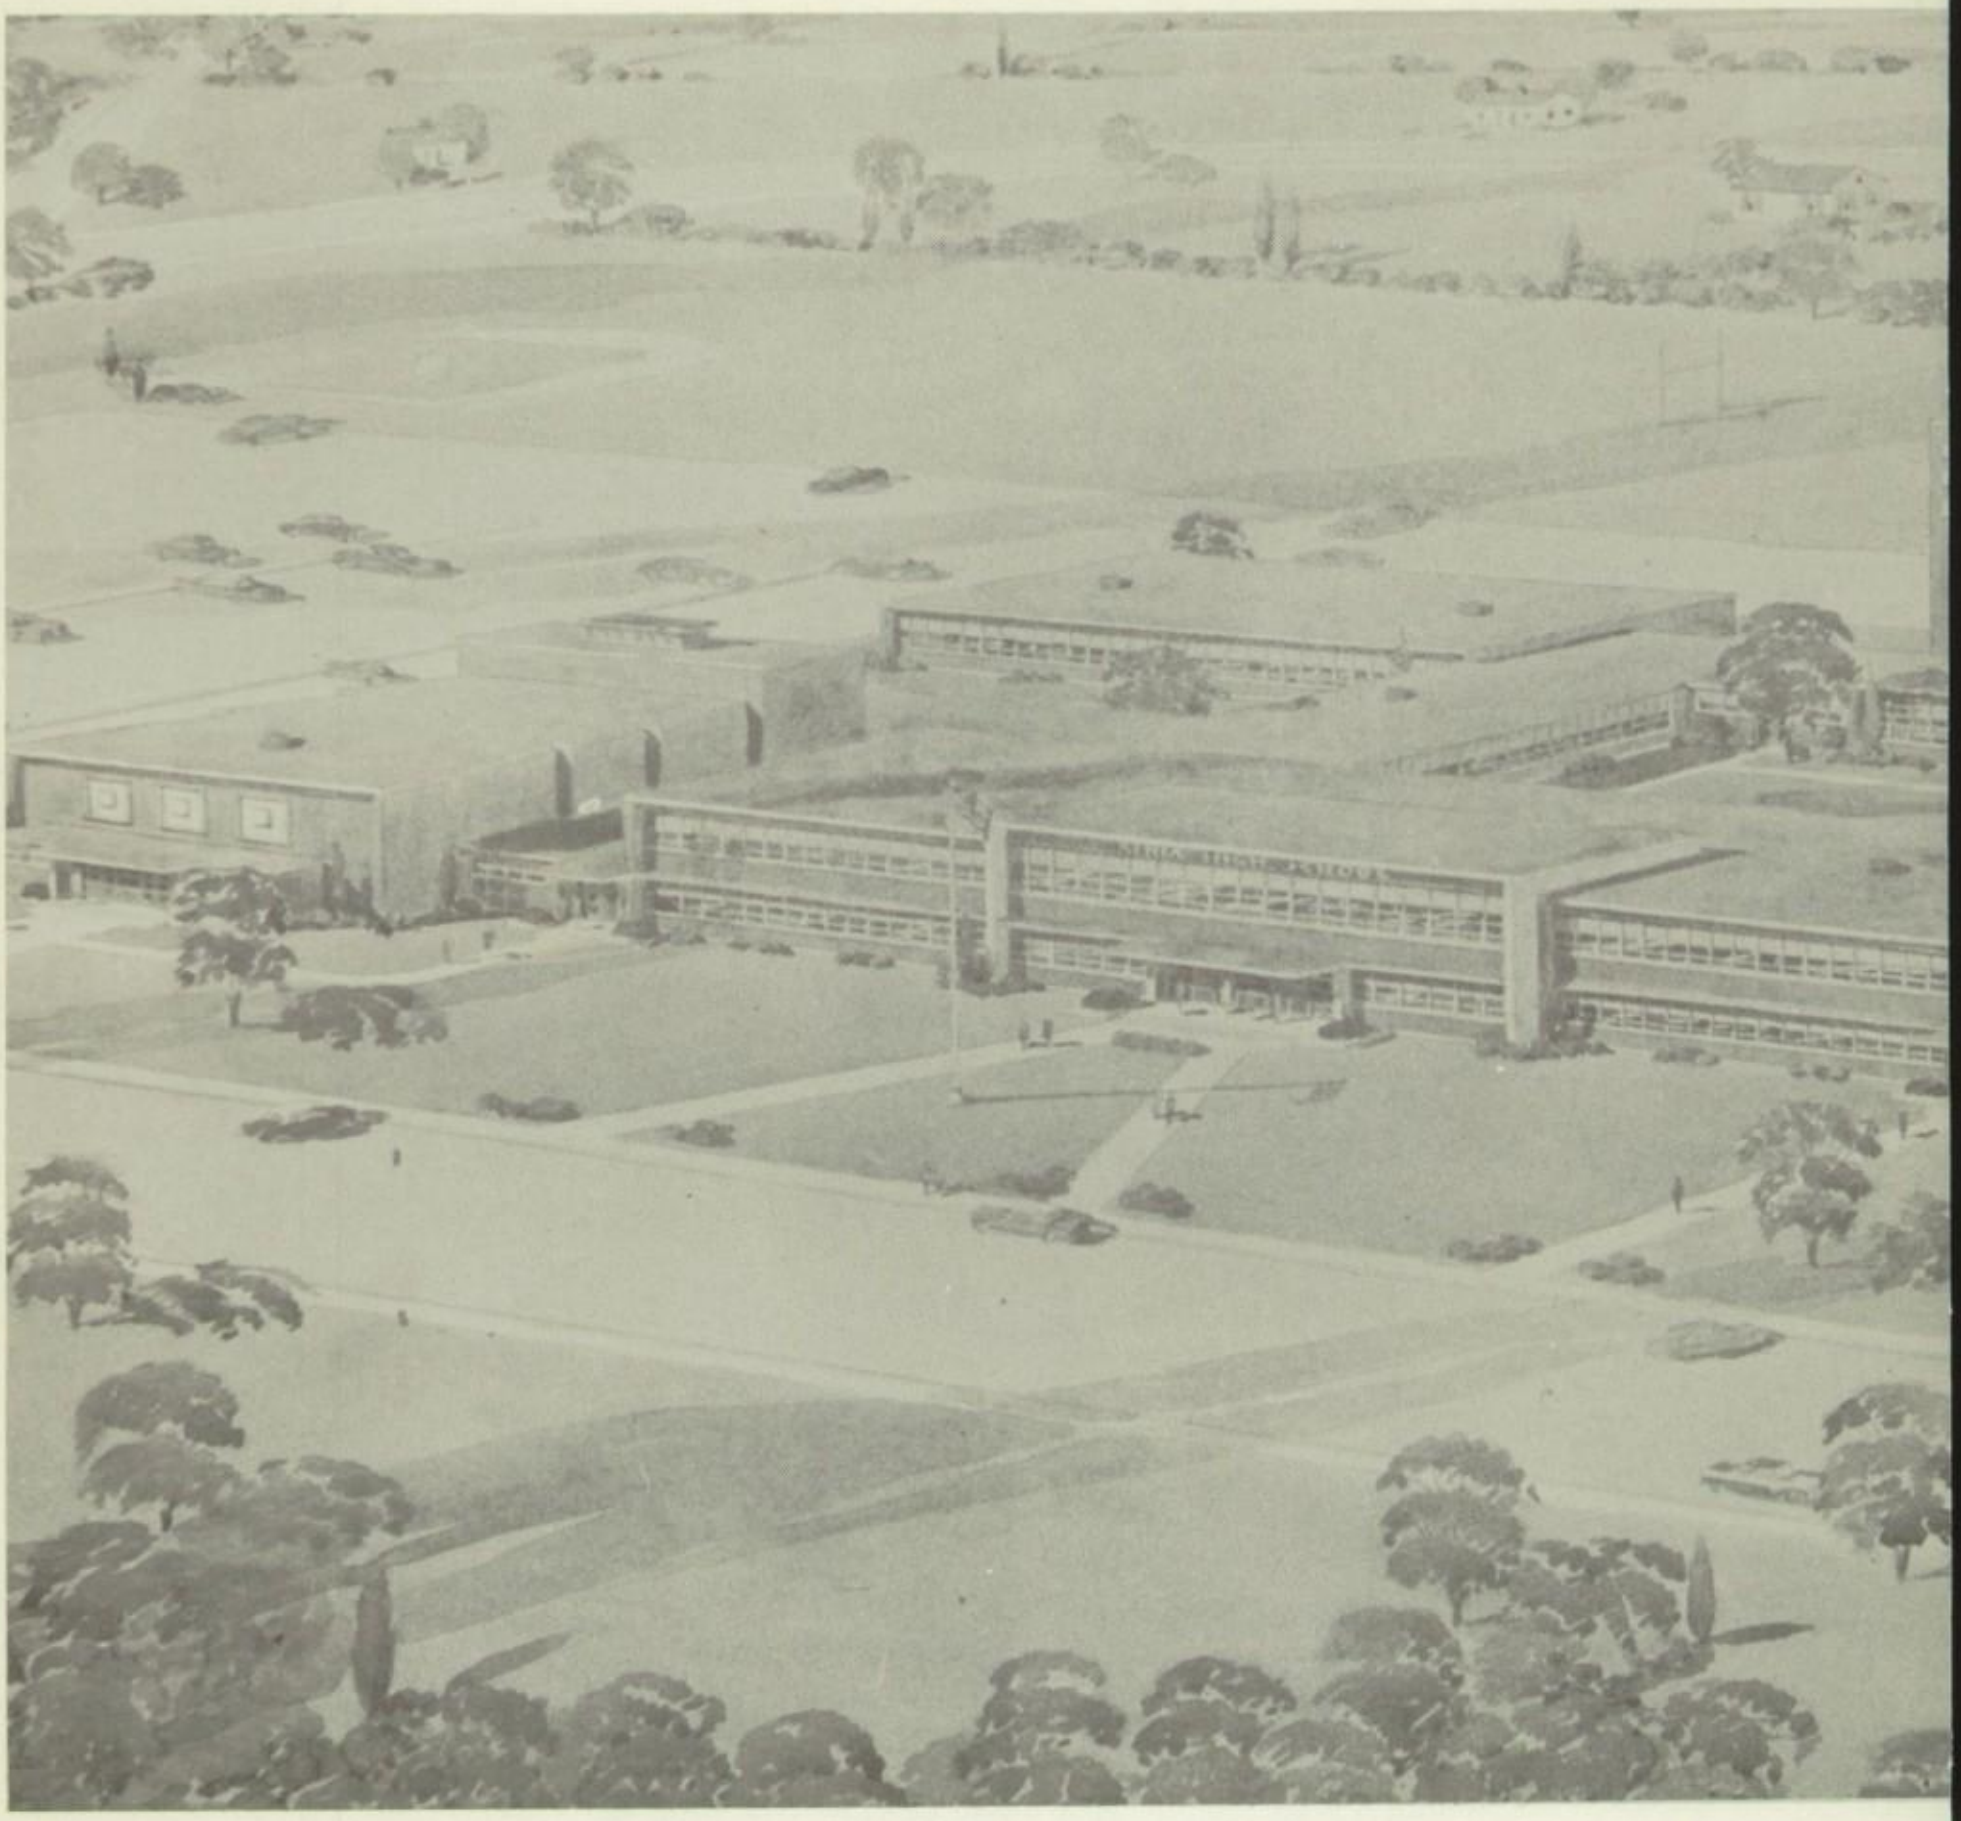
XENIA CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL
X



In the course of a lifetime we are confronted with many arts. Perhaps, the greatest of these is the art of living. Here at Xenia Central we have learned much of this art of living through our experiences with others. It is our honest endeavor in this book to capture that art of living by reliving the events of the past year and all the memories they hold. It is with great pleasure that we, the Senior Class of 1956, present our Cen-Sen.

The main purpose of this book is to capture some of the "moments to remember" of the past year so that they will never be forgotten. One of the most important events of the past year was the passage of the school bond issue. To the citizens, to the industrious supporters of this issue, and to all voters who made this program possible, we owe a debt of gratitude. Thus it is with grateful hearts, that we Seniors present our Cen-Sen to those who made the dream of a school burst into reality. We feel that, because of the untiring efforts of all concerned, the future Senior classes of Xenia Central will have more glowing and profitable "moments to remember."

Class Advisers

We Seniors wish to express our gratitude to our advisers, Mrs. Balmer and Mr. Neff, for their guidance in all of our projects this year. We certainly appreciate their assistance and their patience with our many mistakes. Any honors bestowed upon our class can be traced back to our advisers. To them, once more, we say thanks for a job well done.

Class Officers

Every organization needs leaders and a senior class is definitely no exception. This year we chose Ralph Durnbaugh as president, Jim Harner as treasurer, Joyce Wakeley as secretary, and Bob Reynolds as vice-president. These four seniors have devoted much of their time and energy for the betterment of our senior class. To Ralph, Jim, Joyce, and Bob, we can just say thanks for being such capable and willing officers.

The Farmer Takes A Queen

One of the events of the year is the F.F.A. Annual Banquet. This year the 18th Annual Rabbit Banquet was held in the fieldhouse on November 21st. Among the awards presented were the Star Farmer award to Bill Bosch, president of F.F.A., and the National Silver Medal to the meat judging team. The main event of the evening was the crowning of the F.F.A. Queen! Marilyn Bull was crowned queen by Bill Bosch; her attendants were Regina Jenkins, Omalee Hicks, Virginia Corwin, and Mary Nelle Kelley.

Sr. Tri-Hi-Y is composed of Junior and Senior girls. They must have a C average in order to be eligible for membership and should also be interested in the functions of the club. They sponsor the Alumni formal; and in the spring, they combine their efforts with Jr. Tri-Hi-Y to produce the Tri-Hi-Y formal. Tri-Hi-Y has a religious background. This is reflected in its purpose: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character."

Their motto also expresses their ideals: "Pure thoughts, pure words, and pure actions."

Hi-Y is a boys' service club which corresponds to the girls' Tri-Hi-Y. Junior and Senior boys with at least a "C" average are eligible to join this organization. Their purpose is "To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character." Throughout the year, Hi-Y sponsors with Tri-Hi-Y special religious assemblies at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. On New Years' Eve of this year, Hi-Y once again worked jointly with Senior Tri-Hi-Y to sponsor the Alumni Dance, "Harlequin's Holiday." All members of this club endeavor to live up to the principles of their club--"Clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living."

The purpose of the Art Club is "To promote appreciation of good art within Central High School." Members must be students of art and interested in the club activities. An exception to this rule is that some students may be elected to an honorary membership when their schedule doesn't permit the Art course. Art exhibits are held in the downtown stores for those interested to view. A big project is the decorating of the school on special holidays. At Thanksgiving a scene is placed in the alcove above the front door. At Christmas the halls, the doors, and the alcove above the door are decorated by Art students.

The Girls' Athletic Association is composed of the girls who have an interest in athletics. They must have a C average in order to be eligible. Their purpose is "To encourage athletics for all girls of high school, to develop a spirit of fair play, and to promote sportsmanship among all students." The girls participate in basketball and volleyball intermurals played in round-robin fashion. Projects are important in all clubs and this club has sold 1,000 boxes of Christmas cookies and numerous sweat shirts to make money.

From plowing gardens to serving coffee at their banquet, from judging hogs to choosing their queen--these are the duties of a Future Farmer. This year approximately sixty F.F.A. members are kept hopping by these assignments. The purpose of this club is, of course, to study various methods and phases of farming, so that the members will become better farmers of America in the future. During the past year the club has received many honors, one of which was placing second in the nation with their meat judging team. The efforts of these boys are climaxed with their annual F.F.A. Banquet, which gives their parents and friends an opportunity to see what the chapter has accomplished.

The swashbuckling daredevils of old certainly showed the characteristics of spirit. The buccaneer of Central is a symbol of our fighting school spirit; and so I think it very fitting that our bi-monthly newspaper be entitled "The Buccaneer." The purpose of the Buccaneer is "To bring the students of Central High School, a current review of high school news without prejudice and without favoritism." The staff attempts to bring to the students as large a paper as possible for as low a cost as possible. This year a new feature has been included in the Buccaneer. This feature is the new Junior High section which gives the pupils of Junior High a chance to print news of their own activities, athletics, and social events. This added feature has increased circulation and created more interest in the paper itself.

This year has been an exciting one for the Xenia Central Marching Band. They performed all their shows of the football season in new uniforms. These sharp uniforms are royal blue trimmed with French blue. A reversible shield on the front and a cadet hat with a tall plume add the finishing touches to an eye-catching unit.

The one hundred and ten members of the band and Robert K. Downs deserve much praise for the work they have done attaining their new uniforms and for their fast-stepping shows. put on at the football games.

Senior

Each year the students of Xenia Central look forward to the Christmas assembly as one of the main events of the year. For, at this time, the Senior Choir presents an inspirational and memorable program of Christmas Carols. The one hundred and one members of the choir, directed by Lorin B. McNeal, work very hard and the result is always an outstanding program. The choir also performs at the Winter and Spring Concerts. This year they had the honor of singing for the Easter Sunrise Services and the service held to conclude Youth Week.

Concert

One of the many things the Concert Band does is to play for the basketball games. This music is on the lighter side, with popular tunes arranged by Robert K. Downs. The more serious music is saved for the Winter and Spring Concerts held every year.

This year the band had a special treat. The one hundred and five-piece unit made an overnight trip to Fostoria, Ohio, to give a concert. In exchange for this, the Fostoria High School Band came here to perform.

"Artistry in Rhythm"

Each year Jr. and Sr. Tri-Hi-Y sponsor a Tri-Hi-Y Formal. This event gives the girls the opportunity to ask their "best beau" for a date for a formal dance. This year the Tri-Hi-Y Formal was held on February 25, 1956 in the girls' gymnasium. Sixty couples danced to the music of Jack Walton and his six-piece orchestra.

As its name, "Artistry in Rhythm," suggests, the dance was based on an imaginative, colorful modern theme. The room was decorated with bright colored mobiles, notes, instruments, and other modernistic objects.

Following the dance, refreshments were served. Everyone had an enjoyable time at the formal this year, it was a big success.

Activities

The Evening of Suspense

Candidates for the Homecoming Queen were chosen by Juniors and Seniors in an election held by the Boosters, who are the sponsors of this big event. The lucky senior girls to be nominated were: Sue Wead, Patti Barber, Joanne Jones, Linda Pierce, and Elaine Eckerle.

The big night of October 21st finally arrived, and the air was tingling with excitement and wonder. Everyone had one question on their lips. "Who would be our Buc Queen of '56?"

The first half of the Xenia-Fairmont game finally ended. After the candidates were brought to the field in Ford convertibles, Ralph Durnbaugh, Senior Class President, stepped onto the field--and crowned Miss Linda Pierce Homecoming Queen of 1956!

. . . . . Homecoming

After the exciting crowning ceremonies, a dance was held in the girls' gym in honor of the Buc Queen.

The theme of this dance was "Autumn Leaves," and this theme was carried out by decorating the gym with corn shocks, pumpkins, and leaves.

The Queen and her attendants were escorted by five Senior football players: They were: Larry Thompson, Tom Marshall, Norman Roberts, John Shaw, and Carl Morrow.

Unlike the leaves of autumn that wither and die, this "Autumn Leaves" Homecoming Dance will always remain alive in our memories.

Junior-Senior Prom

For weeks the juniors had been busy at work, but in a very secretive manner. Groups of juniors would cluster in the halls, but whenever a senior walked by, you would hear the warning----"Sh!"

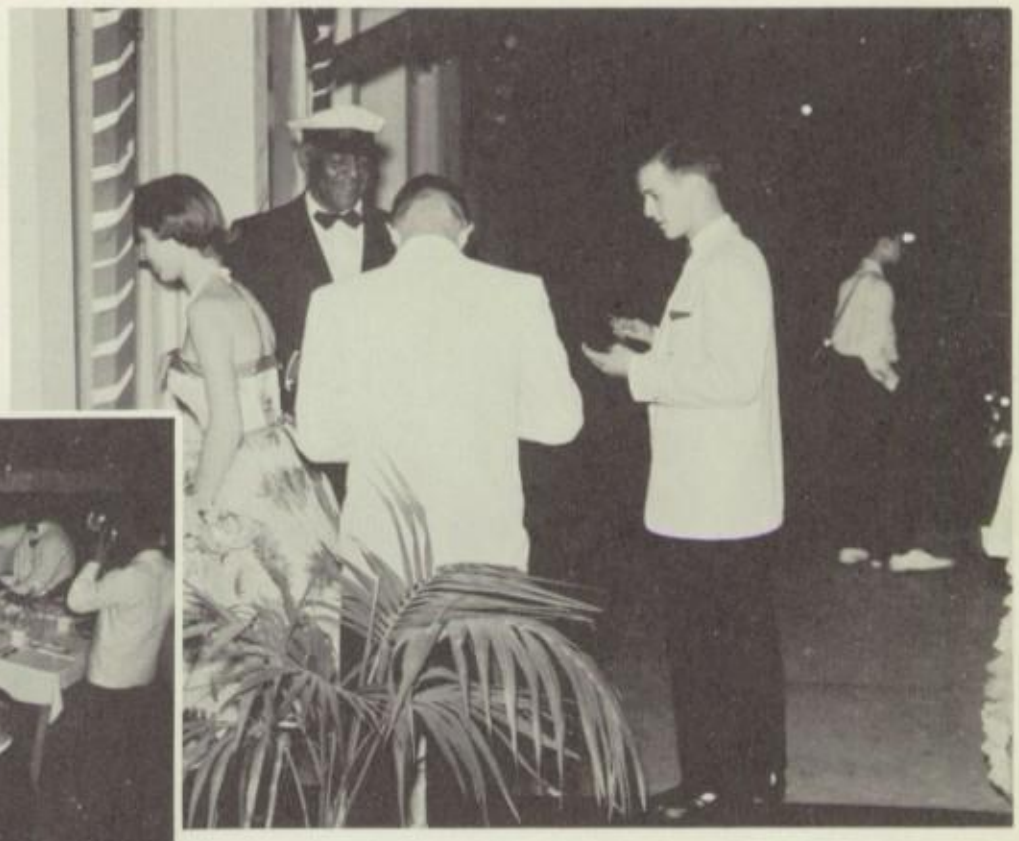
Then, on May 20, 1955, the scheme was brought to light, and everyone saw the product of the junior's hard work--the Junior-Senior Prom of 1955, the "Carousel."

Gay, sparkling circus animals decorated the lattice work, which was placed around the floor in the Field House. Crepe paper streamers in pastel shades added to the effect, and miniture wooden carousels were used as table decorations.

Approximately one hundred and fifty couples swayed to the music of Johnny Reger's ten-piece orchestra. The theme, "Carousel," was quite apropos, for everyone was in a gay, festive mood, and had a wonderful evening.

"Club Rainbow"

After the Jr.-Sr. Prom, practically everyone attended "Club Rainbow." "Club Rainbow" of 1955 was sponsored by the parents of the Juniors and Seniors in coordination with the P.T.S. of Xenia Central.



Some of the various things added to enhance the night club atmosphere were waiters and cigarette girls.

T-bone steak, french fries, and tossed salad were on the food menu; the Ritchie Brothers from the Red Room in Dayton composed the entertainment menu.

The students really appreciated the efforts of the P.T.S. in sponsoring this party. All in all, "Club Rainbow" was the perfect end to a perfect evening.

Operetta Highlights

The operetta, "Lady Be Good," by George Gershwin, was presented on March 25 and 26, 1955, by the Vocal Music Department in the Xenia Central Field House.

The main plot of the operetta was built around Susie and Dick Trever who were evicted from their home because of unpaid bills.

In her moments of despair, Susie met a knight of the road, Jack Robinson, who was really a member of a very wealthy family.

After many misunderstandings and mistakes made by everyone concerned, Jack and Susie were married, which turned everything for the best.

Accompaniment for the operetta was furnished by a special orchestra composed of twenty-one students under the supervision of Mr. Downs and directed by Mr. McNeal.

There was excellent co-operation from everyone concerned in making this operetta a great success.

Junior Class Play

In our junior year the Class of '56 presented a frolicking, three-act play, "Girl Crazy," under the able direction of Richard E. Sultzbach. "Girl Crazy" was held on May 13, 1955, in the Jean B. Ewell Auditorium.

Danny Churchill, a New York playboy, inherits his father's rather deserted ranch in Custerville, Arizona, on the condition that he will live there for one year. Danny changes the dull ranch to a dude ranch, fall in love with Molly, the local postmistress, and changes his former views of the West, with all ending well.

Senior Class Play

"Father Knows Best" was presented to a capacity crowd, in the Jean B. Elwell Auditorium, on November 18, 1955. The play was directed by Olive H. Huston, speech instructor. Seventeen seniors displayed real acting ability in their presentation of the three-act comedy, and the entire senior class cooperated in the production of the play.

Mr. Anderson, a very stubborn man, believes Father always knows best. His way of thinking succeeds only in momentarily wrecking the household. The predicaments are patched up in time, and everything turns out for the best.

Peace Declarations

Marcia Nelson, Vic McKeever, Rosie Wilson, Miss Huston, Carol Cockrell, Ron Gould, Barb Peterson.

On November 13, 1955, Xenia Central held its local Prince of Peace contest at the First Methodist Church in Xenia. Entered in this contest were Ron Gould, Rose Wilson, Marcia Nelson, and Barb Peterson. Barbara won first place and thus was eligible to participate in the county contest. Vic McKeever and Carol Cockrell gave their speeches at their own churches without competition, and also were given automatic entrance to the county contest.

This county contest was held on December 4, 1955. Since there were so many contestants, three separate contests were held--one in Fairborn, one in Xenia, and one in Yellow Springs. Vic McKeever was chosen as alternate in the Yellow Springs contest.

Game Announcers

Tuffy Snider, Ron Gould, Jim Harner, Dow Reichley, Vic McKeever, Bob Charles.

These are the boys who give us the play-by-play description of our home games. Under the supervision of Miss Olive Huston, speech instructor at Xenia Central, these boys are "right down" on the field with their "mike" informing us of the details of the game. Thanks, boys and Miss Huston, for a job well done.

The Voice of Democracy

What does Democracy mean to you? Mr. Webster describes Democracy as "government by the people." Yet, Democracy means so much more that this mere definition, and I'd like to tell you what Democracy really means to me.

The "D" of Democracy symbolized desire--our desire for peace. As babies, we fear noise and sudden movement, and desire peace. Then when we grow a little older, we are upset by the bickering between our parents and desire peace. And on it goes throughout all the years of our lives, always revealing one of our innermost desires -- the desire for peace.

"E" to me means example -- our shining example to the world. Let each of us so live to make this a shinier example and a brighter future for the world.

"M"--the most adequate way I could express this "M" is with our modern expression -- "It's the most!" The most happiness for the most people -- that's Democracy to me.

Next comes "O." There's no doubt in my mind that this "O" represents opportunity. Ours is a country where nothing is impossible. Ours is a country which offers opportunity at every turn to anyone who is willing to work for it.

Then we come to "C". I think that "C" stands for our church. Whether it's a friendly, little country church nestled in a valley, or a huge cathedral in the midst of a bustling city, it's your church or mine. Our Democracy has given us that privilege--to choose our church and to serve it.

What's next? "R"--"R" for responsibility. The freedom of our Democracy carries with it an equal responsibility to use that freedom wisely. First of all, we are all responsible for ourselves, then our family, our community, our state, our nation, and even the world. Yes, without responsibility, our Democracy could not survive.

Next in line is "A"--Ambition. That driving force that impels us to snatch up out opportunities. Democracy just wouldn't be Democracy without ambition.

Then we come to another "C"--"C" for our conscience. In this land of ours where no man drives another, few men need to be driven to face their duty. We realize that we mustn't let our rights interfere with someone else's. You see, YOUR right to swing YOUR fist STOPS where the other fellow's nose starts.

And finally "Y". That "Y" means you. You are important to our Democracy. This is the cornerstone of all our other beliefs - in your rights to live your own life, to speak for yourself, to choose and change your leaders. In our Democracy you count.

Desire for peace, our example to the world, the "most," opportunity, our churches, responsibility, ambition, conscience, and you. THAT'S DEMOCRACY TO ME.

In closing, I would like to speak for Democracy through the lips of Mr. Mack Sauer, editior of a small newspaper in a neighboring town.

"When you get big, whatcha gonna be?"
I say to my lad as he climbs my knee.
He says he's gonna run a newspaper press,
Or be a band leader in fancy dress,
Or--maybe--sell ice cream cones, like his
playmate's dad;
The plans are many of this little lad.

Now, the Russian lad on his daddy's knee,
Isn't asked "Whatcha gonna be?"
It's not up to him it's up to the state
Which rules his life, which determines his fate;
In Germany, too, where men weren't free,
What folly to ask, "Whatcha gonna be?"

Oh, I'm thankful to God that in America still
My little boy can be what he will;
He can choose his faith, his vocation, his all;
And he knows not of a dictator's call;
What a blissful joy with my lad on my knee
To say: "When you're big, whatcha gonna be?"

Xenia Central Senior Cops State

V.O.D. Honors

The "Voice of Democracy" contest is an annual contest sponsored by the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce in co-operation with the Radio and Television Broadcasters and the Radio-Electronics-Television Manufacturers Association. In this contest, which is open to pupils in the upper three grades of high school, each participant writes and delivers a five-minute speech on the subject of democracy.

This year, Barbara Peterson represented Xenia Central High School in the county contest. Seven contestants entered this contest, which was held on November 15, 1955, and Barbara won. Her speech was then recorded and sent to Columbus to be judged in competition with all other local winners in the state.

In December the judges picked her speech as the best, and declared Barbara the State Champ! She is the first student from Central ever to receive this honor. Some of the prizes given Barbara were a table model television set and a hundred-dollar debenture bond from the Cooper Tire and Rubber Company of Findlay, Ohio. Also, Barbara was given automatic entrance to the national contest at Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Senior Scholarship Team

A student must maintain a B average in all courses throughout his four years of high school to be eligible for the Senior Scholarship Team. Twenty-nine Xenia Central seniors were among the one hundred and fifteen seniors from Greene County to take the test on January 21, 1956. Those receiving ratings in the county and Ohio State District were Barb Peterson, Bob Reynolds, Lucy Tandy, John Curry, and Tom Marshall. Barb Peterson and Bob Reynolds both received a rating of honorable mention in the State.

Selection of the members of National Honor Society is made by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, and service. To be eligible for this honor, the senior must rank in the upper twenty-five per cent of his class, and must be a member of the Senior Scholarship Team.

Vocational Guidance Day

Vocational Guidance Day, sponsored by the Business and Professional Woman's Club, the Kiwanis Club, and the Sertoma Club, was held February 8, 1956. Dr. Frank Slutz, personal guidance counsellor from Dayton, spoke to the Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors in an assembly held in the morning. During the afternoon each Junior and Senior attended three vocational conferences, which he had previously selected from twenty-nine available vocations.

The Bucanneers started this year's season by handling all opponents in the same ruthless manner, namely outplaying them, and of course outscoring them.

After thirteen consecutive wins, the Bucs were handed their first defeat by Troy, later to become the Miami Valley League Champs. Although the battling Bucs dropped two games, they still turned in a very impressive record of seven wins against two defeats.

Coach Ben Ankney will lose seventeen seniors this year, but will still have a few boys left from this fall's starting lineup.

Varsity Managers

Joe Westfall, Larry Molitor, Ron Monitor, Rich Adair, Larry Welsh, Dan Patterson, Nick Galliger.

This group of energetic-looking boys are the ones who go right along with our teams to all of the games. Win or lose, the boys do their best to keep the team's morale at its highest peak.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Elaine Eckerle, Patti Barber, Eleanor Amlin, Merle Daugherty, Pat Matson.

If only two words could be used to identify these girls, those descriptive words would be these----"boundless energy." These girls head all of our pep assemblies, hold their own pep assemblies sometimes at noon, and, of course, lead us in cheering at every game. We wish to thank the cheerleaders for doing a swell job of arousing our school spirit.

Junior High Orchestra

The Junior High Orchestra gave a concert at each of the grade schools in order to introduce the various instruments to the younger students. A highlight of the year for the Junior High Band was the halftime show they performed on the football field. This gave them some idea of what to expect when they join the Senior High Marching Band. This group also played for Junior High Night.

The Junior High football team turned out a very fine record of four wins and just one loss this year. Although the freshmen will be moving on to reserve and varsity ball next fall, there are many husky eighth graders coming up!

The freshman basketball team this year is suffering from a lack of height, but they are still holding their own and they hope to finish the year with a winning record.

The school year of 1955-56 is over. Some of us breathe a sigh of relief, while others regret to see the year end. But all of us-----represented in the various sports, organizations, class plays, and music departments -----have tried to make this year an unforgettable one. Now, memories of the year are vivid, but if they grow dim as years go by, we hope you will once more leaf through this book, and by doing so, relive the events of '56. It is for this purpose that we have presented----------

The Cen Sen of 1956
